

Contents

New Foreword by Angela Glover Blackwell 00
Foreword to the 1999 Edition by Robert Coles, 00
Preface to the 1999 Edition 00
Preface and Acknowledgments for the 2014 Edition 00
List of People Profiled, 00

chapter one

Blackwell: Rigid Classes and Corrupt Politics in Appalachia's Coal Fields 000

"Good Rich People" and "Bad Poor People," 000
Blackwell, Yesterday: Developing Appalachia's Coal Fields, 000
The Families That Run Things, 000
The Politics of Work in the Mountains, 000
Blackwell's Have-Nots: Scratching a Living Up the Hollows, 000
Blackwell's Haves: The Good Life on Redbud Hill, 000
Bringing Change to Blackwell, 000
Blackwell Twenty Years Later: Hunkering Down with Family, 000

chapter two

Dahlia: Racial Segregation and Planter Control in the Mississippi Delta 000

Dahlia's Two Social Worlds, 000
Work in Dahlia: Creating and Maintaining the Plantation World, 000
Class and Caste in the Delta, 000
White Planters, Politicians, and Shopkeepers, 000
Leadership in the Black Community: The Old and the New "Toms," 000
Dahlia's Emerging Middle Class, 000
Dahlia Twenty Years Later: New Jobs and New Politics
(with Gemma Beckley), 000

CONTENTS viii

chapter three

Gray Mountain: Equality and Civic Involvement in Northern New England 000

- A Blue-Collar Middle-Class Mill Town, 000
Participation and Investment in the 1990s, 000
The Big Middle "Continuum," 000
Difficult Times Ahead: Putting Civic Culture to the Test, 000
Gray Mountain Twenty Years Later: Holding on to a Blue Collar Community, 000

chapter four

Social change and Social Policy 000

- Cultural and Structural Causes of Persistent Poverty, 000
Class and Politics in Rural Communities, 000
Equality, Democracy, and Social Change, 000
Policies to Encourage Mobility and Build Civic Culture, 000
Policy for Poor People in Poor Places, 000

- Appendix, 000
Notes, 000
Acknowledgments for the 1999 Edition, 000
Index, 000