

CONTENTS

- Acknowledgments ix
- Introduction 1
- 1 A Priest in the Family 8
- 2 Diplomatic Observer: India and Japan, 1927–1934 29
- 3 Silencing Charlie: The Rev. Charles E. Coughlin and the Vatican 49
- 4 An American Monsignor in Mussolini’s Italy 71
- 5 “Spies Everywhere”: Hurley at Vatican City, 1940 93
- 6 An American Bishop in President Roosevelt’s Court 109
- 7 Propagandist in Black: Hurley and the U.S. Department of State 131
- 8 A Parallel Endeavor against Communism: The United States and the Vatican in Tito’s Yugoslavia 154

9 Betrayal in the Balkans: The Stepinac Case 176

10 Standing Alone between Church and State: Hurley and American Anticommunism 196

11 Last Years, Final Struggles 213

Notes 229

Index 275

Illustrations follow page 108