

Contents

|   |    |
|---|----|
| Acknowledgments   | xi |
| INTRODUCTION TO VOLUME FOUR   |    |
| THE HISTORICAL JESUS IS THE HALAKIC JESUS                                     | 1  |
| I. The Multiple Difficulties of Dealing with Jesus and the Law                | 1  |
| II. Three Vital Distinctions  | 5  |
| III. A Road Map through Volume Four   | 8  |
| IV. Once Again, A Reminder about the Rules of the Road                        | 11 |
| NOTES TO THE INTRODUCTION   | 18 |
| CHAPTER 31  |    |
| JESUS AND THE LAW—BUT WHAT IS THE LAW?  | 26 |
| I. Jesus and the Law: Reciprocal Illumination                                 | 26 |
| II. The Meaning(s) of the Law: The Old Testament and Intertestamental Judaism | 27 |
| III. The Meaning(s) of the Law: The New Testament and Rabbinic Judaism        | 38 |
| IV. The Problem of the Historical Jesus and the Historical Law                | 40 |
| NOTES TO CHAPTER 31   | 47 |
| CHAPTER 32  |    |
| JESUS' TEACHING ON DIVORCE  | 74 |
| I. Introduction: Some Preliminary Clarifications                              | 74 |
| II. Divorce in the Pentateuch   | 77 |
| III. Divorce in the Prophets and Wisdom Literature                            | 81 |

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| IV. Intertestamental Period: Philo, Josephus, and Qumran           | 84  |
| A. Philo   | 84  |
| B. Josephus  | 86  |
| C. Qumran  | 87  |
| V. A Glance Forward to the Mishna                                  | 94  |
| VI. The New Testament Statements on Divorce                        | 95  |
| A. 1 Corinthians 7:10–11   | 97  |
| B. The Q Tradition (Matt 5:32    Luke 16:18)                       | 102 |
| C. Mark 10:11–12   | 108 |
| D. Divorce and the Criteria of Historicity                         | 112 |
| E. The Dispute Story in Mark 10:2–12                               | 119 |
| F. Conclusions   | 124 |
| NOTES TO CHAPTER 32  | 128 |
|  |     |
| CHAPTER 33   |     |
| THE PROHIBITION OF OATHS   | 182 |
| I. Introduction  | 182 |
| II. Oaths: From the Jewish Scriptures to the Mishna                | 183 |
| A. Initial Clarifications  | 183 |
| B. Oaths in Ancient Israel and Judaism                             | 184 |
| III. The Prohibition of Oaths in the New Testament                 | 188 |
| A. The Special Situation of the New Testament Sources              | 188 |
| B. An Initial Comparison of the Two Texts                          | 189 |
| C. The Earliest Available Version of the Tradition                 | 191 |
| D. Does the Prohibition Go Back to the Historical Jesus?           | 198 |
| NOTES TO CHAPTER 33  | 206 |
|  |     |
| CHAPTER 34   |     |
| JESUS AND THE SABBATH  | 235 |
| I. The Sabbath from the Scriptures to the Mishna                   | 235 |
| A. The Sabbath in the Jewish Scriptures                            | 235 |
| B. The Sabbath in the Deuterocanonical (Apocryphal) Books          | 240 |
| C. The Old Testament Pseudepigrapha and Qumran                     | 241 |
| D. Jewish Diaspora Literature: Aristobulus, Philo,and Josephus | 246 |
| E. A Quick Glance Forward to the Mishna                            | 248 |
| II. Jesus' Actions on and Sayings about the Sabbath                | 252 |
| A. Miracles on the Sabbath That Do Not Provoke a Dispute           | 252 |

CONTENTS

ix

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| B. Miracles on the Sabbath That Do Provoke a Dispute                                  | 253 |
| C. Sayings of Jesus on Sabbath Hālākâ Found in the SynopticMiracle Stories | 259 |
| D. The Plucking of Grain on the Sabbath (Mark 2:23–28)                                | 267 |
| E. The Sabbath Sayings in Mark 2:27–28  | 280 |
| III. Conclusion   | 293 |
| NOTES TO CHAPTER 34   | 297 |

CHAPTER 35

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| JESUS AND PURITY LAWS   | 342 |
| I. Purity Laws in the Pentateuch and Beyond                             | 343 |
| II. Jesus and Purity in Mark 7:1–23                                     | 352 |
| A. The Structure of Mark 7:1–23   | 353 |
| B. A Structured Translation of Mark 7:1–23                              | 360 |
| C. Identifying the Hand(s) of the Christian Author(s)                   | 363 |
| D. Searching for the Historical Jesus in the Subunits ofMark 7:6–23 | 369 |
| E. Verses 1–5: The Question about Eating withUnwashed Hands         | 399 |
| III. Other Possible References to Ritual Purity in the Gospels          | 405 |
| IV. Conclusions on Jesus and Ritual Purity                              | 413 |
| NOTES TO CHAPTER 35   | 415 |

CHAPTER 36

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| WIDENING THE FOCUS: THE LOVE COMMANDMENTS OF JESUS                     | 478 |
| I. Introduction: The Various Commandments of Love                      | 478 |
| II. The Double Command of Love in the Gospel of Mark                   | 481 |
| A. The Place of the Double Command of Love(Mark 12:28–34)          | 481 |
| B. The Structure and Content of Mark 12:28–34                          | 484 |
| C. The Argument for the Historicity of Mark 12:28–34                   | 499 |
| III. The Command to Love Enemies in the Q Tradition                    | 528 |
| A. Clarifying the Question   | 528 |
| B. “Love Your Enemies”: Is There an Exact Parallel?                    | 532 |
| IV. The Golden Rule in the Q Tradition                                 | 551 |
| V. The Love Command in the Johannine Tradition                         | 558 |
| A. The Theological Context of the Love Command withinJohn’s Gospel | 558 |

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| B. The Love Commands: John and the Synoptics Compared              | 560 |
| C. The Question of Historicity                                     | 566 |
| D. The Love Command in the Johannine Epistles                      | 568 |
| VI. Concluding Reflections on the Love Commandments                | 572 |
| NOTES TO CHAPTER 36  | 576 |
|    |     |
| CONCLUSION TO VOLUME FOUR  | 647 |
| I. Positive Insights   | 647 |
| II. Negative (or Inverse) Insights                                 | 651 |
| NOTES TO CONCLUSION  | 658 |
|    |     |
| Map of Palestine in the Time of Jesus                              | 664 |
| Map of the Galilee of Jesus' Ministry                              | 665 |
| Chart of the Family of Herod the Great                             | 666 |
| Chart of the Regnal Years of the Roman Principes (Emperors) | 667 |
|    |     |
| List of Abbreviations  | 668 |
|    |     |
| Scripture and Other Ancient Writings Index                         | 687 |
| Author Index   | 704 |
| Subject Index  | 719 |