Contents

Acknowledgements vii
Maps viii

Introduction – Higher Bockhampton 1
1 – A railway bore him through 11
2 – One who lived and died where he was born 25
3 – She who upheld me and I 46
4 – ‘The playground of TH’s childhood’ 61
5 – His kindred they, his sweetheart 74
6 – One who walks west, a city-clerk 92
7 – If but some vengeful god would call to me 108
8 – Red roses and smug nuns 124
9 – Believed-in things 136
10 – Rising and falling with the tide 149
11 – With magic in my eyes 166
12 – That there should have come a change 186
13 – Wasted were two souls in their prime 210
14 – Lifelong to be I thought it 228
15 – Some hid dread afoot 244
16 – No such bower will be known 258