DALLAS'S PASSION FOR SILVER: AN INTRODUCTION
Charles L. Venable

MODERNISM IN AMERICAN SILVER
Jewel Stern

PART 1: MODERNISM IN AMERICA, 1925-1950

Chapter 1: Art Moderne Comes to America

Chapter 2: Department Stores Advance Modern Design in the 1920s

Chapter 3: New Styles for a New Age

Chapter 4: Museum Exhibitions, 1929-1931

Chapter 5: The Depression: A Sobering Reality

Chapter 6: Styles of the 1930s

Chapter 7: Novelties and Necessities

Chapter 8: The Exhibitions Continue, 1937-1940

Chapter 9: World War II: The Silver Industry on the Home Front

PART 2: A NEW LOOK IN SILVER, 1950-2000

Chapter 10: Free Form Design in the 1950s

Chapter 11: Mixing Silver with Other Materials, 1950-1970

Chapter 12: Innovation: The Reed & Barton Design Program

Chapter 13: Space Age Silver

Chapter 14: Exhibition Silver in the 1950s and 1960s

Chapter 15: A Sea of Change, 1960s-1980s

Chapter 16: A Final Flourish, 1980-2000

Conclusion: Silver at the Dawn of a New Century

FORGING THE MODERN: BEYOND INDUSTRY
Kevin W. Tucker

Biographies of Selected Designers

Catalogue of Selected Works

Selected Bibliography

Index

Photography and Copyright Credits