Contents

Preface x
Acknowledgements xvi
List of Tables xviii
List of Maps xix

Prologue: The Heavenly City 1
Jerusalem of the Jews
Jerusalem of the Christians
Jerusalem of the Muslims

1 The Wars of the Consuls 14
The holy places
Egyptian rule in Jerusalem
The Protestant bishopric
War clouds over the tomb of Christ

2 Old City, New City 45
Beyond the walls
Spiritual imperialism
Jerusalem promoted
‘A Christmas present for the British nation’

3 Jerusalem under the Mandate 82
From military government to mandate
Christian triumphalism
The rise of the mufti
Towards partition
‘A glorified cockpit’
4 Division
- Mandatory abdication
- Spontaneous partition
- Pantomime across the Jordan
- Collapse of corpus separatum
- A king for Jerusalem
- ‘Will the Vatican send an army here?’

5 Two Jerusalems
- Divide and rule
- Jerusalem demoted
- Christians in a divided Jerusalem
- New consular wars
- Cul-de-sac capital

6 Annexation
- Conquest
- Unification
- Jerusalem under Israeli rule
- Arab resistance
- World reaction

7 Towards Palestinian Autonomy
- Diplomacy by declaratory gesture
- Jerusalem: an American problem?
- Palestinians and Jerusalem
- Intifada and after

8 Christian Jerusalem in Eclipse
- Christians under Jewish rule
- Reds and whites
9 Creeping Partition
   The Beilin-Abu Mazen agreement
   Palestinian elections
   The siege of Orient House
   The Camp David impasse

10 Trouble on the Temple Mount
   Palimpsest
   Riots at the Wailing Wall
   The Temple Mount under Israeli rule
   The battle of the muftis
   The logic of haggle

Epilogue: The Earthly City
   Jigsaw-puzzle solutions
   The Clinton legacy
   Israeli and Palestinian public opinions
   Demographic diktat?
   Must heaven wait?

Notes 363
Sources 397
Index 407